Redemption from the Curse.

Isaiah had foretold this great mistake on the part of his people: "We did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted;" but He was wounded for our iniquity. "The chastisement for our peace was upon Him." (Isaiah 53:5.) He hath poured out His soul unto death. (Isaiah 53:11.) In this way He became "the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world." (John 3:16.) "The Man Christ Jesus." (1 John 3:2.) "The Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:29.) He is "The Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:28.) It is finished! The work is guaranteed.

Pilate washed his hands in sight of the people as expressing his innocence of Jesus' death. The rulers of the Jewish people were the responsible parties to tell to Stephen afterward, "Ye stiffnecks and uncircumcised in heart and ears!" Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? And they have slain them, which shewed before the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers." — Acts 7.
